

Bio

The Watermen are New Country pirate troubadours that will steal your heart.

Making waves from the east coast, their 3rd release is a powerful blend of radio friendly tunes solidly crafted by seasoned musicians. Self produced and recorded at McGraw and Pumpkin Patch Studios, "Bag Balm" oozes with melody and hooks. The Watermen are known for the uniqueness of their song writing. Every song stands on it's own and is not simply a rehashed version of a certain formula. The Watermen float nicely in the New country categories.

Marc wrote the official theme song for the New Brunswick Chapter of The Children's Wish Foundation. Marc and the boys also won the biggest battle of the bands in Atlantic Canadian history. The band took home $20,000.00 at the Misty Moon in Halifax, NS. Marc has worked with Producers Rick Hutt and Fraser Hill (Tom Cochrane & Red Rider, Northern Pikes, Charlie Major, etc.) and studied Bell canto vocal techniques with Brian Vollmer of Helix fame. Marc is currently writing new music for the next album with Alex Call who wrote "Jenny 867-5309" performed by Tommy Tutone.

May 2010 - Shopping for Label Press Quotes

"Beneath a light rockin veneer lies an album of country, roots rockin, emotionally charged tunes weaved with a personal and socially in tune perspective. From catchy fist-pumping anthems to sweet ballads The Watermen bring home the goods."

-Troy Tait
Classic Rock C103

"The Watermen are genuine performers with true natural talent."

-Alan Cochrane

It's hard to believe it was 11 years ago that Mark Little wrote the official theme song for the Children's Wish Foundation, and was presented with a plaque of appreciation on stage at the Misty Moon. A musical career was born and continued this past week, when Mark's Moncton based band The Watermen held their 1st CD release at Bubbles Mansion. (Trailer Park Boys) The special guest at last Friday's party was Reveen, who showed up straight from his own performance at the Rebecca Cohn. Mike Smith (a.k.a. Bubbles from Trailer Park Boys) seemed downright "mesmerized" ... or maybe it was just those glasses!

-JAMIE PATTERSON
The Daily News

"Where there is art, there is music, and vice versa. This all becomes apparent after listening to The Watermen's CD. The unique mix of their new sound with the comfort of the familiar is both refreshing and welcomed. Marc's raw, raspy voice lends way to relatable lyrics that are light and sometimes dance with flirtation. The band's message and mood is clear without being heavily weighed down by tough, sharp lyrics. It's the kind of music you can listen to anytime, anywhere and always leaves you feeling inspired. Music has that ability, and so does this band."
